DANCES HELD ON THE HILL

Fall House Parties Are Held by Fraternities—Perfect Weather Adds to Enjoyment of Week-end

College Hill was the scene of unusual festivities when the various fraternities and the neutral body entertained many guests and alumni over the week-end at the annual fall house parties. Ideal autumn weather conditions enabled the visitors to enjoy the program of entertainment to the fullest extent, and no gloom of defeat in any of the athletic contests was spread over the gathering of merry-makers.

On Friday evening dances were held at the chapter houses of the fraternities until the small hours of the morning. The football game with R. P. I. was the main attraction on Saturday afternoon. Immediately after this the guests gathered around the soccer field to watch the contest between the Buff and Blue and Syracuse. A Sophomore Hop at the Delta Upsilon House and the D. T. tea dance at the Chi Psi Lodge were held from four until six.

The following is the list of guests at the different houses:

Sigma Phi: Patronesses, Mrs. F. Lent, Elmira, and Mrs. G. Sicard, Utica.

Misses Isabelle and Louise Aloe and Katherine Steadman of St. Louis, Mo.; Marjory Barrett, East Orange, N. J.; Louisiana Fowler, Dayton, O.; Alice Graeme, New York City; Virginia H. Griffen, Pittsfield, Mass.; Eileen Kitson, Oneida; Leone Marks, Elmira; Annie and Harriet Richmond and Elizabeth Squires, of Buffalo; Marjorie Sherman, Clinton; Elizabeth Smith, Binghamton.

Messrs. Hawley Truax, '09; S. B. Cairns, '20, Matt Stackhouse, '21, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Ammerman of Syracuse. Music: Alfred Light Brigade, from Alfred University.

Alpha Delta Phi: Patronesses, Mrs. Edward Thompson of New York and Mrs. Swartwout of Clinton.

Misses Hermione Brabb and Helen Kirtland of Albany, Helen Bowman, Lowville; Helen Schaff and May Alice Steyens, New Rochelle; Dorothy B. Sage, Troy; Marion R. Beyer, Buffalo; Mary Louise Clepeland, Utica; Florence DeWindt, Jamaica, L. I.; Edythe Lambert, Corona, L. I.; Gertrude Beeken and Ethel Gosling, New York City; Gertrude Kent, Margaret Miller, and Marion Newell, Binghamton; Louise Johnson, Carthage; Honor Marlow, Syracuse; Messrs. Al Warner, '96; John Weaver, '14; Robert Guy, '20; Roscoe Reeder, '22.

Music: Meyerhoff's Orchestra of Schenectady.

Psi Upsilon: Patronesses, Mrs. Spice and Mrs. Morehouse of Utica.

Misses Ruth Barten and Charlotte Brainard of Waterville; Eula B. Dillingham, Auburn; Helen S. Ireland, Johnstown; Kathleen Carey, Katharine Kent and Margaret Lyon, of Norwich; May Morris, Oneonta; Grace Simpson, Brooklyn; Ellen Sherrill, Oswego; Florence Garloe and Isabel Houghteling of Gloversville; Esther Graves and Clara Nowack of Genesee; Willa Williams, East Aurora; Marjorie Sherman, Clinton; Edna Dubois, Ruth Ferguson, Josephine DeVane, Helen Papsworth, Syracuse; (Continued on page 3.)

GLEE CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL TRY-OUTS

Leader Fitch Makes First Selections to Work On—Instrumental Club Will Organize Soon

It is rather early to make any accurate observations on the matter of Hamilton's musical clubs for the approaching season. Nevertheless, if present indications are worth anything it is safe to say that this year will see the college represented by one of her finest musical organizations in years.

Try-outs held recently gave everyone in college an opportunity to make a place on the Glee Club. As in other years there must be a further cut before concerts can be given away from the Hill. As a result of these, the following selections were made:

1st tenor: 1923, A. Morris; 1924, Moore, Holmes, Riedel, Bitely, Pritchard, Meehan; 1925, Brady.

2nd tenor: 1923, W. M. Thompson; 1924, Brush, Becker, Ladd; 1925, J. Valentine, P. G. Scott, Mahannah, Burke, A. R. Thompson; 1926, Payne, Robson, Button, Bohn, F. Nichols.

1st bass: 1923, Burke, J. Williams; 1924, Bates, Embury; 1925, Garypie, Croasdaile, Towne; 1926, Daymont, Walbridge, Katz.

2nd bass: 1923, McGiffin; 1924, Culver; 1925, Fredernburg, Turner, Hastings, Perrine; 1926, Chetian, Brazeau.

The first rehearsal was held last Wednesday evening in Commons Hall. The leader of the Glee Club, R. Hawley Fitch, conducted a few short exercises that revealed the ability of the club to some extent.

Try-outs for the instrumental club will be held some time this week. While there is a good number of men in college who were on the club last year, new men are earnestly invited to come out. Merit will be the basis on which the choices will be made. Leader Langtry announces that practically the same instrumentation will be used as last year.

TENTATIVE PLANS FOR HALLOWE'EN CELEBRATION

Although plans for the annual underclass Halloween celebration are as yet tentative, the usual program will probably be carried out. This will include a parade of the Sophomores and Freshmen into Clinton, where songs, yells, and speeches will be the order of the evening. Calls will be made outside the homes of various members of the faculty, who generally appear and say a few words appropriate to the occasion. The great Rusty-Slimer Feud will be forgotten on the evening when harmony reigns for the moment.

After the parade returns to the Hill, it adjourns to the gym, where contests of pie-eating, wrestling, blind boxing, etc., are staged between the Sophs and Frosh. The pie-eating bout is usually the most loudly applauded, and the festivities end when the supremacy at this branch of sport has been established.

TRUSTEES VOTE TO ENLARGE COLLEGE

Pass On Many Plans for Improvements in Equipment and Buildings—Museum to be Erected in Short Time

TO RE-BUILD KNOX HALL

At one of the most important meetings of the board of trustees ever held in the history of the college, from the standpoint of financial expenditures decided upon, plans were made for the long-talked of "larger Hamilton." It is intended to make the college satisfactory in every respect for the accommodation of 400 students in the near future. These plans include building extension and repairs, as well as increase in professors' salaries. The plans will be put into operation as soon as the preliminary formalities and building plans can be determined. Every measure proposed received the unanimous support of each committee and was in turn unanimously adopted by the board.

The plans include a museum to be erected at the north end of the quadrangle of which the library is now the south end. This has commonly been termed the "new quad." The college has several collections regarded as exceptional by experts, and these will be placed in the new building. Also the departments of biology and geology will be located there. For a long time the need for more adequate accommodations for these two departments has been keenly felt.

Knox Hall, where the present geology department is located, will be remodeled into an administration building. Both the executive and the administrative work will be carried on under the same roof when the remodeling is completed.

The chemistry laboratory will be increased to double its present size, so that the entrance will be in the center of the building. The whole laboratory will be outfitted with all necessary apparatus and will be provided with splendid facilities throughout.

Six houses will be erected for members of the faculty and their families. Two of the houses will be built on the property just above the president's house, and will face on a street to be built in at that point. The other houses will occupy that section in which the Dale, Saunders and Chase homes are located.

The old library is to be rearranged with all necessary equipment for the into a hospital ward and provided care of patients. Dr. J. H. Glass, chairman of the infirmary committee, declared his intention of donating a set of surgical instruments to the new ward.

North and other buildings will also be repaired and painted where the situation requires. The famous old Kirkland Cottage is to be repaired and surrounded with a fence and will be made into an historical relic.

In order to make the upkeep of the various dormitories self-supporting, it was decided to increase the room rents to an amount sufficient for this.

Mr. Dunham, chairman of the college growth committee, reported the gift of Robert W. Pomeroy of $2,000 to be added to the Theodore M. Pomeroy fund for loaning to worthy students. (Continued on page 3.)

R. P. I.---HAMILTON GAME ENDS IN DEADLOCK

Both Teams Fail to Score in Spirited Game—Hamilton Line Holds Sturdy Engineers—Fowler Breaks Up Plays of Visitors.

Saturday afternoon saw one of the best games of football ever witnessed on Steuben field. Playing a superb game, the Hamilton team held the heavy R. P. I. team to a scoreless tie, in the face of what seemed to be a hopeless defeat. Twice the Engineers advanced to within a few yards of the Buff and Blue line, and twice the Hamilton defense was like a stone wall to the attack of the invaders.

The game was full of thrills from the start to the finish. Once during the third quarter, one of the R. P. I. men broke through the Hamilton line for a long end run, and seemed headed for a sure touchdown, but Alex Alison, the speedy Buff and Blue half back, saved the day for Hamilton by overtaking the man from behind and bringing down on the Hamilton twenty yard line.

Perhaps the most outstanding figure in the Hamilton defense was Dick Fowler. Time and again he broke through the Cherry and White and smeared up the plays before they had even started. It was Fowler's energy and magnificent playing that made the Buff and Blue hold so well when they were fighting with their backs on their own goal line.

Toward the end of the game the R. P. I. men seemed dazed by the splendid game the Buff and Blue put up. While the Hamilton team was the lightest, the Rensselaer men seemed to suffer the most from injuries.

One feature of the game was the ability of the Hamilton team to stop the famed aerial attack of the Engineers. Eight times during the game the R. P. I. team failed forward passes.

First Quarter.

The game started with Hamilton kicking to R. P. I., Hamilton held R. P. I. for downs, but lost the ball again on a fumble. First down in R. P. I. territory, quarter ended with fourth down and two yards to gain.

Second Quarter.

R. P. I. made the two yards, first down. Then they tried a pass but failed. Hamilton penalized for holding, R. P. I. tried three forward passes but failed. They then kicked to Hamilton and it was Hamilton's ball on the twenty-yard line. Alison then got away for a twenty-five yard run. Then Hamilton failed to gain any more and punted out of the danger zone. R. P. I. returned the kick and Hamilton fumbled on her own thirty-yard line. R. P. I. then tried a pass, but Morris intercepted it and made a thirty-yard gain. Half ended with the ball on the R. P. I. forty-yard line and the score 0 to 0.

Third Quarter.

The second half opened by R. P. I. kicking to Hamilton. Hamilton ran the ball to the thirty-yard line, but failed to gain any more and kicked. R. P. I. then opened up and tried a series of end runs. The first netted them fifteen yards. During this play linesman Risley was painfully injured in the leg by an R. P. I. man falling on him. The next end run was the most spectacular feature of the day. R. P. I. broke through for a sixty-yard run and was finally brought down by Alison after a thrilling race up the field. Here the R. P. I. team made the most threatening attack on the Buff and Blue. Advancing to within one yard of the goal line, they were thrown back twice by the Buff and Blue. Here Hamilton kicked out of danger to her own forty-yard line. Hamilton here held R. P. I. for downs. Alison fumbled and lost the ball. Hamilton held R. P. I. again for downs.

Fourth Quarter

Hamilton kicked on second down to R. P. I.'s thirty-eight-yard line. Here forty yards on passes. They worked the Engineers opened up and gained the ball to within five yards of the Hamilton goal but were again thrown back by the plucky Hamilton line. Hamilton then kicked out of danger. R. P. I. tried four passes in succession but failed miserably. Hamilton then kicked to R. P. I.'s forty-yard line. Game ended with the ball in the visitors' possession.

The following is the summary:

HAMILTON	R. P. I.
center	Jones
right guard	Sherman
right tackle	Rouff
right end	Staunton
quarter back	Sparrow

The College Singing.

Last year when the inter-class singing competition was held, this college stood in a fair way to gain a far better grade of singing, but since that time there has been a decided slump in the rendering of our songs. The exhibitions made at recent gatherings of the college body have been worse than poor. The faint response made at the Rochester game by a group of men that ought to be able to make a sound loud enough to be heard across the field, was really pathetic. The singing of Hamilton songs is without harmony, rhythm, and unity.

The whole cause of the trouble is in the lack of interest on the part of the students. Half of the freshmen have failed to learn even the words of our songs, and a great part of the college body either stumble along through the verses, or neglect to sing at all, a condition that never existed on the campus a few years ago. Such an attitude not only detracts from the college spirit we pretend to uphold, but it gives a decidedly unfavorable impression to any visitors who may be on the Hill. Instead of rousing the fighting spirit of the team on the field, it has an opposite effect.

Such a disgraceful state of affairs should not be allowed to continue. Either some improvement should be made or the practice of singing at the games should be abandoned. The last alternative would be an admission of defeat and would hardly be able to bear the comment of the alumni or of the most spirited undergraduates.

So many times in the past have editorials on this subject appeared in these columns that it seems trite to refer to the matter again, but it is evident that something must be done. The practice of holding college "sings" has always been upheld by Life and we again point out the necessity of reviving the old custom. In order to be a success, these sings must be supported conscientiously by everyone. It is not too late to remedy the present state of affairs, and a little action in the matter would help out considerably.

Cheaper House Parties.

A great deal of agitation has been started in the student body about the "high cost of house parties." Several of the fraternities represented on the Hill have carefully gone over the long list of expenses incurred by holding these social functions in an effort to cut down the high cost of disbursements from the pocketbook of the individual who attends the festivities. The movement has earned for itself the hearty approval of everyone concerned and can be carried on a great deal further with unanimous support. One of the items generally figured in the cost of taking in the dances is the uncalled-for taxi bill from Utica to Clinton. In many colleges it would be foolish to discuss such a matter which seems to depend obviously upon the individual himself, but here where everyone is so closely connected, it soon becomes a subject for general consideration. It is found that when a few men go to the expense of hiring a taxi for their guests, others, who are unable to afford it, are forced to follow their example to avoid what they consider humiliation before their guests. Since there is an attempt being made to run less expensive dances, it seems that there is a good place to begin to cut down expenses.

Another item that adds a considerable amount to the total tax that each man pays is the hiring of music from distant cities. A fancy name or an over-estimated reputation will often land contracts to play on the Hill. In many cases, the orchestra leaders will substitute for his regular musicians who will play elsewhere. An exorbitant price plus the fee of room and board and travelling expenses is continually being paid for no more than average music.

There is no doubt that house party expenses can be reduced if it is the intention of the various fraternities to do so.

MAY REDUCE NUMBER OF HOUSE-PARTIES

Inter-fraternity Council Discusses Advisability of Changing Date of Junior "Prom"

At a recent meeting of the Inter-fraternity Council, the proposition in regard to fewer house parties on the Hill was brought up for discussion. This matter has been talked over among the various crowds for some time, but it is only recently that it has come before the attention of the Inter-fraternity Council.

After the first discussion the members of the council brought the matter to the attention of the individual fraternities, a number of which were in favor of having but two parties a year. Many wished to drop fall house party entirely and arrange to have prom in the spring. But this year, in so much as preparations are well under way for fall house party, it would be impracticable to attempt to cancel it. As a result, it has been suggested to drop one of the other parties that comes later in the year.

Then the idea of having prom in the spring instead of between semesters was brought up before the council. Dr. Wood was interviewed on this matter and expressed the opinion that such a plan would be unpopular and would meet with disapproval by the coaches of the various spring athletic teams, because of the break in training which would result from a three-day party. Dr. Fenn was interviewed in regard to the college placing aside three days in the spring for prom and of not holding prom at mid-year as has hitherto been the custom.

Further discussion revealed the fact that some men were in favor of having no prom at all, that the formal party is too expensive, a bore, and attended merely because the men feel they must support the class in its undertaking. The outcome of the entire matter is as yet undecided. It was brought to the attention of the council that not so very long ago the crowds held their parties at different times throughout the year.

The council is anxious for the various crowds to get together again and discuss this matter. It is desired to get the opinions and feelings of all the men before the matter is pursued further.

FAST SOCCER GAME RESULTS IN A TIE

Syracuse Team's Attack in Last Half Evens Up Final Score to 2-2

The Syracuse soccer team scored its fourth tie contest of the season Saturday at Clinton when it was unable to surpass the superior playing of the Hamilton team. Colgate had kept the Orange to a 0-0 score the day before and the Buff and Blue did better by a 2-2 tally.

In the first half of the game Hamilton started with a rush and showed excellent kicking, good headwork, clever passing as well as a good defense. Marlow, Turner and Willard playing back positions were continually aggressive. They helped block many of the Syracuse attacks. Marlow, early in the half, aided by good pass work, was enabled to kick the first Hamilton goal.

The final half brought the visitors to life. Captain Partridge led a series of advances, the last of which resulted in a score. Ross at the center berth and who is also a star on the champion lacrosse team, kicked the goal. Shortly afterwards, the home team came back strong enough to allow Wood to make a neat second kick. Then followed what devotees of the game called the best exhibition seen on the Hill this year. Both teams were on the alert and Mendelson in the last ten minutes of play penetrated the line and passed to Ross who made the second goal. The Buff and Blue, though fighting hard, was unable to recover causing the final score to be 2-2.

Partridge, Mendelson and Ross showed up best for the visitors. Chevreux playing at goal and the Palmer Marlow, Turner combination was the nucleus of the Hamilton team.

Coach Gelas and Captain Palmer feel that the improvements of the past week will predict a victory over Williams next Saturday at Williams-town.

Goals: Hamilton, Marlow, Wood. Syracuse, Ross 2.

Substitutions: For Hamilton, Wood for Nichols, Mathewson for Brown.

30 minute halves. Referee: Feathers, Clark Mills.

CLASS ELECTIONS

The Junior and Sophomore classes held their elections last week in the Chapel. In the Junior class, "Alec" Alison was chosen president, "Biff" Bates vice president, and George Marks secretary and treasurer. This is Marks' second year in this office.

On Monday morning, a special meeting was held to elect a business manager for the 1924 Hamiltonian, to fill the vacancy left by "Ned" Doyle, who was unable to return to college this year. "Duke" Thompson was chosen as his successor.

"Doug" Hays was elected president of the Sophomore class, and "Bozo" Yates was made vice president. Harold Harding was elected to the office of secretary and treasurer.

The Freshman elections have not been held yet but it is expected that they will take place some time this week.

dents to pay their college expenses.

A resolution also was adopted authorizing the executive committee to employ a field secretary for the college growth committee. A communication from the alumni council expressed approval of the athletic program. Professor Milledge L. Bonham, formerly tentatively named for the Publius B. Rogers chair of history, was promoted to the regular appointment in that department.

FACULTY GRANTS TWO

DAYS IN SPRING FOR "PROM"

At the faculty meeting held Monday, October 16, it was decided to allow the undergraduate body a two-day vacation Thursday and Friday being named, in the spring some time before the middle of May. This action was taken in accordance with a proposition made by the Inter-Fraternity Council to this effect. The intention of the council in making this suggestion was to eliminate the mid-term house party and Junior Prom at that time, reducing the number of house parties to two a year. In taking this action the council did not intend to abolish Junior Prom, but merely to postpone it until spring, if the Junior class agrees to do so. The faculty named the middle of May as a limit in order not to have the parties interfering with final examinations.

In giving this vacation, the faculty decided that the usual mid-term vacation period should be abolished.

Carpe Diem

Good morning! Have you recovered from the effects of houseparty yet? Neither have we. But, anyway, we have the confirmed conviction that "our" girl got across big, so to speak. (Everyone has.) Yeah, "our girl," and we aren't talking from an editorial standpoint, either. We did dance with her a few times, however. Which brings us to the statement that most men are liars when they are talking to other fellows about their houseparty consorts (this is done mainly before said party). Oh, yes, there were one or two who got royally rooked when some of the girls dragged blind.

About the only honest man we know is the one who, proverbially having a really excuse for anything and everything, vainly tried to stay awake in a Saturday class. The prof asked Bill why he couldn't stay awake. Bill shook himself and drawled: "Well, sir, all I have to say is that I can't give an alibi."

But regardless of how the rest of us fared, Charlie Perry made himself popular with the sweet young things by passing around the candy he won at the college store last weekend. Charlie attributed his good luck to the fact that all the slimmers had squandered their money in punching unlucky holes in the punch board prior to his arrival on the scene.

And speaking of slimmers (they always furnish a fertile field for Carpe Diem) the sophs certainly have struck terror to their palpitating hearts. One of the dear boys beseeched Rus Thompson in an enticing manner:

"Won't you please take off that tie? You know green is our color." Whereupon Rus professed absolute ignorance of the fact and to no avail snarled at the slimer to "try and take it off."

But to return to houseparty. One of the Alpha Delt yearlings while being prepared for "the grand and glorious event" in the barber chair, anxiously confided to a friend:

"I hope that manicure lady doesn't ask me to have a manicure, because I know that I wouldn't have nerve enough to refuse her."

One houseparty incident would furnish fitting material for the fellow who draws the "it may be comedy to some folks, but it's tragedy to me" cartoons. The nice young man, wrinkled up his forehead and in a philosophical tone remarked to the sweet young flapper: "But, after all, it's the little things in life that tell." Glancing at his feet, he saw his garter had unceremoniously draped itself around the top of his shoe.

There was considerable anxiety on the Hill during the trustees' meeting. It was rumored that they were seriously considering adopting measures to do away with slimer caps. Dutch Clements after a long discussion is alleged to have dissuaded them from taking such a radical step.

But anyway it's nice to know that we have a new as well as an old Prex.

If Old Prex had ever known how many boys were disappointed when he failed to have them sing "God of Our Fathers Known of Old", he probably would have run true to form.

Y. M. PROGRAM FOR SATURDAY

An interesting evening's entertainment is promised all patrons of the Y Theater in Commons Hall next Saturday night when the well-known feature picture "Cappy Ricks", is presented. The picture is a close adaptation of Peter B. Kyne's novel of the same name. The author of the rollicking sea story was present when most of the scenes were filmed and aided Director Tom Forman materially. Thomas Meighan, famous for his work in "The Miracle Man", "The Frontier of the Stars", and "Manslaughter" is the star. He is ably supported by Agnes Ayres, a newcomer to the screen who has done notable work in such pictures as "Borderland" and "Bought and Paid For."

A two-reel Christie Comedy will accompany the feature film on the program.

STATISTICAL REVIEW OF COLLEGE STORE SALES

Figures Show Lucky Strikes Are Most Popular Smokes—Few Sales in Line of Clothing

How many cigarettes have you smoked since college started? If you smoked your quota, it would probably be upwards of 85. And that's a rather conservative estimate, because the statement is based on the sales made in the College Store during the 28-day period since the store was opened. The figures assume 350 men in college, and the store reports that upwards of 3000 packs of cigarettes have been purchased. Of these "Lucky Strikes" constitute over half. The sales of all the other brand just barely equals that of the "Luckies." However Camel's are next best sellers. Cigars and pipe tobacco are not so much in demand. And the number is small who roll their own, if the sales of "Bull Durham" are to be taken as a criterion.

However, not everyone in college does smoke cigarettes, and many lavish their family's wherewithall at the soda fountain.

Forty quarts of milk are consumed each day in the manufacture of milk shakes. A quart of milk makes about two milk shakes. Sodas run a close race with the former, however, and about 80 sodas are sold a day. Ice cream too comes in for its share of the total, and between 45 and 50 gallons are devoured each week. "Chocolate first, last and all the time" seems to be the cry of those lined up at the soda bar. Chocolate so far exceeds other flavors in popularity that the others don't even have a look-in. "Hot dogs" also are proving more and more in demand as the fall weather grows chillier. Special arrangements will be made to supply the demands for the "dogs" after football games.

John L. Gaffney, proprietor of the store, says that chocolate bars and bar candy are by far the kings of the candy demand. Chocolates in bulk languish and grow stale while waiting for purchasers, but Hershey bars fill up a big space between classes.

Spreads and lunches in the rooms is of a former generation for the groceries are hardly ever called for. Whether the soda fountain or Commons meals are the reason for this, there is little mystery. Small packages of cookies and the kind that sell "so many for so much" are much in demand. The fellows don't buy many in bulk.

And when it comes to shaving soap, "Palmolive" has it so far over "Williams" and the numerous other brands that you can't see them for whiskers. And strangely enough, the soap for other purposes that sell best is also "Palmolive". Advertising has influenced the men so much that despite the fact that "Pepsodent" costs more than any of the other tooth pastes, they are all anxious to "remove that grit."

Clothing, gaudy neckties, and banners for the most part go unsold. Mr. Gaffney is of the opinion that the peddlers who go around to the various houses with their lines of banners are hurting the store. It was reported that one such agent sold his whole stock at one house. The store banners, he says, are just the same price as those sold by itinerants, and the profits go to the athletic funds.

Expenses are of small worry to many, and accurate accounts are not kept by the majority. But then that's only from the viewpoint of those who buy expense account books.

ALFRED NEXT ON THE HAMILTON SCHEDULE

Southern State Team Best in Many Years, Will Meet in Gridiron Battle Here Saturday

The Alfred University football team, which is scheduled to meet the Buff and Blue on Steuben Field Saturday, will probably weigh approximately the same as the Hamilton eleven and like the Buff and Blue will rely on forward passes for their best means of ground-gaining, according to reports which Life has been able to gather.

The Alfred scores to date:

Alfred 28, Mechanics Institute 0; Alfred 0, Bucknell 41; Alfred 0, Westminster 0; Alfred 6, St. Bonaventure 7; Alfred 6, Univ. of Buffalo 0.

The Westminster and St. Bonaventure games were the best tests of Alfred's strength.

The Alfred team emerged from the St. Bonaventure game with one minor injury. The extent of last Saturday's casualties is not yet known. It is believed, however, that the Purple will be able to place a better line-up on the field than she has at any time this season. Experimenting is practically over and Coach Wesbecher has eleven Alfred has had in many sea-assembled what looks like the best sons.

McConnel, fullback, who is playing is a power on both offense and defense his first season of football for Alfred, fense. The mainstays of the line are Robinson, center, Gardiner, tackle, and Bliss, end.

A tentative Alfred line-up is:

THOMPSON SETS NEW RECORD FOR X-COUNTRY

Easily Gains First Place When Hamilton Takes Race from R. P. I. Runners

With the course in fine shape, and ideal weather conditions, the Buff and Blue cross country team had little difficulty in defeating R. P. I. by a score of 28-33. Captain Thompson wiped out the memory of last year's defeat by completely outdistancing his former rival, Clark, and incidentally lowered the time for the course, establishing a new record of 22 minutes, 58 seconds.

Thompson, Van Hoesen and Clark easily took the first three places for Hamilton in the order named, while Yates came in a good sixth. Richards, the fifth placing man, took sixteenth place, and the bulk of the Buff and Blue team struggled in several minutes later. The score shows that, although the Engineers were defeated, yet they presented a much better balanced team than Hamilton's, placing almost all their runners, as they did, before our fifth man.

The score: Hamilton: Thompson 1st, Van Hoesen 2nd, Clark, 3rd, Yates, 6th, Richards, 16th. Total 28.

R. P. I.: Clark, 4th, Myers, 5th, Tinker, 7th, Webster, 8th, Bender, 9th. Total, 33.

—Edward J. Ward, '02, of the United State Bureau of Education, has just returned to Washington after living for fifteen months in Wainwright, a little Eskimo village 300 miles north of the Arctic Circle. During his stay in Wainwright, Mr. Ward taught school, conducted a community center and acted in several other capacities.

—J. Edwin Doyle, '24, who was quarterback on last year's football team, arrived on the Hill Friday and remained for both house party nights.

CHARLATANS HOLD FALL TRY-OUTS

Program Selected for Fall Tour Consists of Four One-Act Plays—"Lima Beans" Again on List

The program which the Charlatans will present on their fall tour has been chosen by the play committee and tryouts for the parts were held in the Little Theater last Sunday and Monday. The plays to be produced are "As Good as Gold", by Laurence Housman, "The Birthday of the Infanta", by Stuart Walker, "Op-O'-Me-Thumb", by Frederick Fenn and Richard Price, and "Lima Beans", as presented at Commencement last June.

In some instances two men have been chosen for the same part, as the judges were not able to make a decision in regard to the man best suited to the role. Eliminations will be made after another tryout in the near future.

The plays chosen are of a wide and varied appeal. "As Good as Gold" presents St. Francis of Assisi in his dealings with a miser and three robbers who have stolen the miser's gold. The comedy of the play is supplied by Brother Juniper. The cast is as follows: St. Francis, Snyder or Thomas; Three Robbers, Brush, Albertson, Schinier; Juniper, R. Thompson; Miser, Webb or Perrine.

"The Birthday of the Infanta", is a dramatization of Oscar Wilde's story, filled with very fine pathos and a touch of tragedy. The cast is as follows: Infanta, Wallace; Duchess, Perrine; Chamberlain, Thomas; Attendant, Brush; Fantastic, Baer.

"Op-O'-Me-Thumb" is laid in a French laundry in Soho, London. The play tells the story of a little wench who manufactures an imaginary romance to compete with the romances of her co-workers and the situation that arises when the imaginary lover appears. This play affords excellent opportunities for character work. The cast: Madame, Albertson; Rose, Wallace; Celeste, Snyder; Clem, Perrine; Horace, Sailor or Skinner; Amanda, Baer.

FALMER SOCCER CAPTAIN

Frank W. Marlow, Jr., has resigned as captain of soccer, to which position he was elected before the season opened, and Fred L. Palmer has been unanimously elected to fill his place. Both of these men have made an excellent showing on the team, and while the team is sorry to lose Marlow as captain, they feel themselves fortunate in having Palmer to take charge of the team.

The excellent showing made by the team in holding Syracuse to a tie Saturday indicates that there is good soccer material in the line-up. A large part of the credit for Saturday's score is due to the veteran playing of Marlow and Captain Palmer.

BIOLOGY DEMONSTRATION

Monday morning Mr. Leroy of Utica gave the Biology Class a very instructive demonstration on the X-ray and its uses and advantages. Mr. Leroy is a noted specialist in this line and was interested in coming up to the Hill through Dr. Farrell of Utica. Mr. Leroy does all the X-ray work for two of the hospitals in Utica and knows thoroughly this kind of work.

For the first part of the period he gave an explanation to the class of the machine and its uses and gave to each man the chance to see the bones in his own hand. Then he arranged an apparatus for showing pictures to the students. The section lasted two hours and during that time he gave his listeners a good idea of this wonderful machine and its importance in the medical world.
